

Between 7 and 9 June 2019, the Trail Running World Championship will be played on Portuguese soil. Top mountain athletes will cut the goal of the Trail World Championships 2019 in Miranda do Corvo, in the region of Coimbra.

June 9th is the day of the long-awaited Ultra Trilhos dos Abutres (UTA), with 44km and 2100D+, being this the race where the athletes can walk the same rails that the previous day was occupied by the Trail World Champions.

Pre-registrations started 16th november at 00.00 and, and as might be expected, the rush started long before the starting shot!

As soon as the inscriptions were opened, several cybernauts tried to register, putting to the test the Prozis platform, a platform designed for this purpose. By 12h there were more than 2,500 direct accesses to the registration platform, and the number of 1,000 pre-registered athletes from the four corners of the world had already been reached.

The distribution of vacancies will take into account several premises, and the Associação Abutrica tried to benefit all types of athletes:

Distribution of vacancies:

- 100 organization (sponsors, totalists, guests, itra ranking, etc.)
- 200 draw
- 100 supportive race bibs
- 150 foreigners

- 100 packs accommodation

Better results

- 50 first male in the Ultra Trilhos dos Abutres 2018
- 40 first male in the Trilhos dos Abutres 2018
- Top 20 Female in the Ultra Trilhos dos Abutres 2018
- Top 10 women in the Trilhos dos Abutres 2018
- First 10 teams in the Ultra Trilhos dos Abutres 2018 (4 places each)
- First 10 teams in the Trilhos dos Abutres (4 places each)
- 80 Ultra Trail Championship ATRP ranking (until 16 November)
- 70 ATRP ranking of the Long Trail Championship (until 16 November)

Also, those interested in participating in the Ultra Trilhos dos Abutres can rest because they have until December 16 to pre-register. At the beginning of January, on a date to be announced, there will be the Official TWC presentation in Miranda do Corvo, where the 1000 available spots will be drawn.

Athletes can also consult the new website, which has recently been launched, which includes all the information associated with UTA and TWC.

We can also announce that the open competition (UTA) is once again part of the Circuito de Trail Ultra da Associação Portuguesa de Trail Running, being a "150 series" race and qualifying with 2 points for UTMB® 2019!